1 JURISDICTION

2 3. This Accusation is brought before the Acupuncture Board (Board), Department of 3 Consumer Affairs, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the 4 Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

5 4. Section 4937 of the Code states:

6 "An acupuncturist=s license authorizes the holder thereof:

7 "(a) To engage in the practice of acupuncture.

8 "(b) To perform or prescribe the use of Asian massage, acupressure, breathing techniques, 9 exercise, heat, cold, magnets, nutrition, diet, herbs, plant, animal, and mineral products, and 10 dietary supplements to promote, maintain, and restore health. Nothing in this section prohibits
11 any person who does not possess an acupuncturist=s license or another license as a healing arts
12 practitioner from performing, or prescribing the use of any modality listed in this subdivision.

13 "(c) For purposes of this section, a 'magnet' means a mineral or metal that produces a 14 magnetic field without the application of an electric current.

15 "(d) For purposes of this section, 'plant, animal, and mineral products' means naturally 16 occurring substances of plant, animal, or mineral origin, except that it does not include synthetic 17 compounds, controlled substances or dangerous drugs as defined in Sections 4021 and 4022, or a
18 controlled substance listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the 19 Health and Safety Code.

20 "(e) For purposes of this section, 'dietary supplement' has the same meaning as defined in 21 subsection (ff) of Section 321 of Title 21 of the United States Code, except that dietary
22 supplement does not include controlled substances or dangerous drugs as defined in Section 4021
23 or 4022, or a controlled substances listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of 24 Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code. "

25 5. Section 4955 of the Code states:

26 "The board may deny, suspend, or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, the 27 license of any acupuncturist if he or she is guilty of unprofessional conduct.

28 "Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1 “(a) Using or possessing any controlled substance as defined in Division 10
2 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or dangerous drug
3 or alcoholic beverage to an extent or in a manner dangerous to himself or herself, or 4 to any other person, or to the public, and to an extent that the use impairs his or her
5 ability to engage in the practice of acupuncture with safety to the public.

6 “(b) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions,
7 or duties of an acupuncturist, the record of conviction being conclusive evidence
8 thereof.

9 “(c) False or misleading advertising.

10 “(d) Aiding or abetting in, or violating or conspiring in, directly or indirectly,
11 the violation of the terms of this chapter or any regulation adopted by the board
12 pursuant to this chapter.

13 “(e) Except for good cause, the knowing failure to protect patients by failing to 14 follow infection control guidelines of the board, thereby risking transmission of 15 blood-borne infectious diseases from licensee to patient, from patient to patient, and 16 from patient to licensee. In administering this subdivision, the board shall consider 17 referencing the standards, regulations, and guidelines of the State Department of 18 Health Services developed pursuant to Section 1250.11 of the Health and Safety Code
19 and the standards, regulations, and guidelines pursuant to the California Occupational 20 Safety and Health Act of 1973 (Part 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Division 5 21 of the Labor Code) for preventing the transmission of HIV, hepatitis B, and other
22 blood-borne pathogens in health care settings. As necessary, the board shall consult 23 with the Medical Board of California, the California Board of Podiatric Medicine, the 24 Dental Board of California, the Board of Registered Nursing, and the Board of 25 Vocational Nursing and Psychiatric Technicians, to encourage appropriate 26 consistency in the implementation of this subdivision.

27 “The board shall seek to ensure that licensees are informed of the responsibility 28 of licensees and others to follow infection control guidelines, and of the most recent

1 scientifically recognized safeguards for minimizing the risk of transmission of 2 blood-borne infectious diseases.

3 “(f) The use of threats or harassment against any patient or licensee for 4 providing evidence in a disciplinary action, other legal action, or in an investigation
5 contemplating a disciplinary action or other legal action.

6 “(g) Discharging an employee primarily for attempting to comply with the 7 terms of this chapter.

8 “(h) Disciplinary action taken by any public agency for any act substantially 9 related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist or any 10 professional health care licensee.

11 “(i) Any action or conduct that would have warranted the denial of the 12 acupuncture license.

13 “(j) The violation of any law or local ordinance on an acupuncturist's business 14 premises by an acupuncturist's employee or a person who is working under the 15 acupuncturist's professional license or business permit, that is substantially related to 16 the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist. These violations shall 17 subject the acupuncturist who employed the individuals, or under whose 18 acupuncturist license the employee is working, to disciplinary action.

19 “(k) The abandonment of a patient by the licentiate without written notice to the 20 patient that treatment is to be discontinued and before the patient has had a reasonable 21 opportunity to secure the services of another practitioner.

22 “(l) the failure to notify the board of the use of any false, assumed, or fictitious 23 name other than the name under which he or she is licensed as an individual to 24 practice acupuncture.”

25 6. Section 4961 of the Code states:

26 “(a) Every person who is now or hereafter licensed to practice acupuncture in this state
27 shall register, on forms prescribed by the Acupuncture Board, his or her place of practice, or, if he 28 or she has more than one place of practice, all of the places of practice. If the licensee has no

1 place of practice, he or she shall notify the board of that fact. A person licensed by the board
2 shall register within 30 days after the date of his or her licensure.

3 “(b) An acupuncturist licensee shall post his or her license in a conspicuous location in his
4 or her place of practice at all times. If an acupuncturist has more than one place of practice, he or 5 she shall obtain from the board a duplicate license for each additional location and post the 6 duplicate license at each location.

7 “(c) Any licensee that changes the location of his or her place of practice shall register each
8 change within 30 days of making that change. In the event a licensee fails to notify the board of 9 any change in the address of a place of practice within the time prescribed by this section, the 10 board may deny renewal of licensure. An applicant for renewal of licensure shall specify in his or 11 her application whether or not there has been a change in the location of his or her place of 12 practice and, if so, the date of that change. The board may accept that statement as evidence of 13 the change of address.”

14 COST RECOVERY

15 7. Section 4959 of the Code states:

16 “(a) The board may request the administrative law judge, under his or her proposed 17 decision in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before the board, to direct any licensee found
18 guilty of unprofessional conduct to pay to the board a sum not to exceed actual and reasonable
19 costs of the investigation and prosecution of the case.

20 “(b) The costs to be assessed shall be fixed by the administrative law judge and shall not in 21 any event be increased by the board. When the board does not adopt a proposed decision and 22 remands the case to an administrative law judge, the administrative law judge shall not increase
23 the amount of any costs assessed in the proposed decision.

24 “(c) When the payment directed in the board's order for payment of costs is not made by 25 the licensee, the board may enforce the order for payment in the superior court in the county
26 where the administrative hearing was held. This right of enforcement shall be in addition to any 27 other rights the board may have as to any licensee directed to pay costs.

28 “(d) In any judicial action for the recovery of costs, proof of the board's decision shall be

1 conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the terms for payment.

2 “(e) All costs recovered under this section shall be considered a reimbursement for costs
3 incurred and shall be deposited in the Acupuncture Fund.

4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5 8. On or about April 30, 1990, the Board of Registered Nursing issued Registered Nurse
6 License Number 452770 to Respondent. On or about August 14, 2015, in a disciplinary action
