FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Substantially Related Convictions)

- 9. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under code sections 4955(b)
 [Substantially Related Conviction] in that he was convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist. The circumstances are as follows:
- responded to a complaint of an assault in Muir Woods National Monument. The officers interviewed a man who claimed injuries inflicted that evening by his friend, Paul Alexander Slidders. The man stated that he, Slidders, and a third friend had come to Muir Woods in order to calm Slidders, who had seemed very anxious, but that after a short period of increasingly strange behavior, including shouted imprecations against an unseen "evil force," Slidders had attacked the third friend. Slidders punched and kicked the victim repeatedly, despite the narrator's attempts to stop him. Slidders told the narrator that the third friend had to die. When the narrator attempted to prevent Slidders from pursuing the fleeing third friend, Slidders attacked him with punches and kicks. He managed to escape from Slidders and fled, eventually finding the third friend who was hiding in the woods after summoning help with his cell phone. The Rangers soon found Slidders walking along the hiking trail. Slidders was placed under arrest and taken to Marin General Hospital, where he was treated for a broken hand; he was then booked into Marin County Jail.
