FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE
(Sexual Misconduct)

10. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 726 of the Code in that he committed acts of sexual misconduct with Patients A, B, and S.R.¹ during acupuncture treatment. The circumstances are as follows:

Patient A

12. On December 14, 2011, Respondent covered Patient A's breasts with a scarf. He asked Patient A for permission to work in between her breasts. She agreed because she thought it was part of treatment. He massaged between her breasts, down her stomach, and back around her breasts.

13. On January 6, 2012, at approximately 6:00 p.m., Patient A arrived at Respondent's office for her scheduled appointment. Respondent invited Patient A to use his hot tub to loosen her muscles. Patient A entered the hot tub in the nude since she was unprepared with a swimsuit. Respondent subsequently asked Patient A if he could join her in the hot tub. Patient A agreed to avoid confrontation.

14. Respondent disrobed and entered the hot tub in the nude with Patient A. Respondent asked Patient A if he could work on her shoulders. He stated, "why don't you come over here and let me rub your shoulders?" Patient A declined and informed him that she felt uncomfortable.

15. After they got out of the hot tub, Respondent provided treatment to Patient A in one of his treatment rooms. While Patient A lay face down, Respondent massaged her head, neck, shoulders, back, buttocks, and legs. Respondent did not ensure that the sheet covering Patient A was adequately tucked to avoid exposing her private areas when he massaged her buttocks and rotated her leg.

16. Respondent then had Patient A turn around on the table. Respondent exposed her breasts without permission and rubbed around and over her breasts and nipples.

17. Respondent removed the sheet from Patient A's right leg and bent her right leg and bent it at the knee, and rotated the leg thereby exposing her vagina. Respondent repeated this procedure on her other leg as well. He made no attempt to cover her vagina.

18. Respondent moved around the table to sit above Patient A and work on her neck. He made no attempt to cover Patient A's upper body. Respondent had a view of Patient A's exposed breasts the entire time that he worked on her neck.

19. As Respondent moved around the table, his body would rub up against Patient A's hands.

20. While treating Patient A's lower abdomen with acupuncture, Respondent felt around her lower abdomen inappropriately low and asked Patient A "is this your pelvic bone?" The sheet covering Patient A was pulled down to the area above her crotch.

21. The treatment lasted approximately two and three quarter hours later and ended at approximately 8:45 p.m.

Patient B

22. Patient B is a licensed massage therapist. She was employed by Respondent for approximately six months. Patient B sought treatment from Respondent for neck, upper back, shoulder, and scapula pain. She also had symptoms consistent with PMS.

23. On a date unknown to Patient B but known to Respondent, Respondent gave Patient A...
B a "Thai" massage as part of treatment. He had her sit on a table. He got up on the table and positioned himself directly behind her. Patient B attempted to hold a sheet tucked between her arms to keep the sheet from falling down. Patient B was nude beneath the sheet.

24. Respondent lifted Patient B's arms over her head causing the sheet covering her breasts to fall to her waist. Patient B's breasts became exposed. She became very uncomfortable. She could feel Respondent's body against her. She felt that Respondent's breathing changed when her breasts were exposed. She felt that he was aroused and his body heated up.

Patient S.R.

25. On February 8, 2012, District Attorney Investigator S.R. conducted an undercover operation to determine if Respondent would expose or touch a female patient while providing acupuncture or massage treatments. She went to Respondent's office for treatment regarding shoulder and neck pain associated with S.R.'s fictitious employment. Respondent asked S.R. to remove all her clothes, except her panties, and cover herself with a sheet.

26. Respondent conducted acupuncture treatment while S.R. was lying on her back. Respondent then asked S.R. to roll over to her stomach to treat her back side. As S.R. was rolling to her stomach, Respondent lifted the sheet off her body and exposed her breasts.

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)

27. Respondent is further subject to disciplinary action under section 4955.2, subdivision (a) of the Code in that his acts of acts of sexual misconduct with Patients A, B, and S.R. constitute an extreme departure from the standard of practice.

28. The circumstances are as follows: Paragraphs 11 through 26 are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

THIRD CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Unprofessional Conduct)

29. Respondent is further subject to disciplinary action under section 4955, subdivision (d) of the Code in that he engaged in unprofessional conduct by breaching the rules or ethical code of conduct of the profession of acupuncture, and by engaging in conduct unbecoming to an acupuncturist in good standing in the profession and which demonstrates an unfitness to practice acupuncture.² The circumstances are as follows:

30. Paragraphs 11 through 26 are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

FOURTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE
(Inadequate and Inaccurate Records)

31. Respondent is further subject to disciplinary action under section 4955.1, subdivision (e) of the Code and section 1399.453 of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations in that he failed to keep complete and accurate records regarding the medical history of Patients A and B, the chief complaints of Patient A and B, and Respondent's care and treatment of Patients A and B. Respondent also failed to sign his treatment notes for both patients.
