indicated.

4. Section 4955 of the Code states in part:

"Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

"(b) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist, the record of conviction being conclusive evidence thereof.

"(i) Any action or conduct that would have warranted the denial of the acupuncture license.

"(1) Been convicted of a crime. A conviction within the meaning of this section means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action that a board is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

“(b) The costs to be assessed shall be fixed by the administrative law judge and shall not in any event be increased by the board. When the board does not adopt a proposed decision and remands the case to an administrative law judge, the administrative law judge shall not increase the amount of any costs assessed in the proposed decision.

“(c) When the payment directed in the board's order for payment of costs is not made by the licensee, the board may enforce the order for payment in the superior court in the county where the administrative hearing was held. This right of enforcement shall be in addition to any other rights the board may have as to any licensee directed to pay costs.

“(d) In any judicial action for the recovery of costs, proof of the board's decision shall be conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the terms for payment.

“(e) All costs recovered under this section shall be considered a reimbursement for costs incurred and shall be deposited in the Acupuncture Fund.”

CAUSE FOR DENIAL OF APPLICATION

(Conviction of a Crime)

8. Respondent's application is subject to denial under sections 4955, subdivisions (b) and (i), 480, subdivision (a)(1), and Penal Code section 136.1, subdivision (a)(2), in that he was convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of an acupuncturist. The circumstances are as follows:

June 1, 2001 Conviction

9. On or about June 1, 2001, in the Alhambra Superior Court of Los Angeles County, in proceedings entitled The People of the State of California vs. John Kok Hong Cheung case number GA045669, Respondent was convicted of attempting to dissuade a witness from testifying at trial in violation of California Penal Code section 136.1, subdivision (a)(2), a felony.

10. The facts and circumstances surrounding the conviction referred to above were that on or about March 19, 2001, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department (LASD) detectives from the Asian Crime Task Force conducted an investigation involving an attempt to dissuade a victim/witness from testifying at the Los Angeles County Criminal Court for a hearing related to a robbery/assault incident that involved a United Bamboo street gang member. At the time of the incident, Respondent was a member of the United Bamboo street gang. During their investigation, the LASD detectives learned that Respondent had made contact with a witness to the robbery/assault incident on two separate occasions. Specifically, on February 19, 2001, Respondent went to the witness's house and spoke to the witness regarding the criminal proceeding and incident that Respondent's then fellow gang member was involved in. Then, on or about March 4, 2001, while outside in the parking lot of a café where the witness was present inside, Respondent again spoke to the witness a second time via a cellular telephone about the same criminal proceeding.

11. On or about March 28, 2001, a felony complaint for arrest warrant was filed in The People of the State of California vs. John Kok Hong Cheung, et al. charging Respondent with the following:

Count 1: Knowingly and maliciously attempting to prevent and dissuade a witness from giving testimony at trial on or about February 19, 2001, in violation of Penal Code section 136.1, subdivision (a)(2), a felony;

Count 2: Unlawfully attempting to bribe to a witness upon the understanding that he shall not attend trial on or about February 19, 2001, in violation of Penal Code section 138, subdivision (a), a felony;

Count 3: Knowingly and maliciously attempting to prevent and dissuade a witness from giving testimony at trial on or about March 4, 2001, in violation of Penal Code section 136.1, subdivision (a)(2), a felony; and

Count 4: Unlawfully attempting to bribe to a witness upon the understanding that he shall not attend trial on or about March 4, 2001, in violation of Penal Code section 138, subdivision (a), a felony.
12. On or about June 1, 2001, the case was called for a preliminary setting/resetting hearing. Respondent was convicted by plea of nolo contendere to Count 1 (attempting to dissuade a witness from testifying). The Court suspended the imposition of sentence, and placed Respondent on formal probation for a period of five years. Additionally, Respondent was ordered to: (1) serve 364 days in Los Angeles County Jail (minus a credit of 133 days); (2) pay restitution in the amount of $500; (3) not use or possess any narcotics, dangerous or restricted drugs or associated paraphernalia, except with a valid prescription, and stay away from places where users, buyers or sellers congregate, except in an authorized drug counseling program; (4) not associate with persons believed to be or known to be narcotic or drug users, sellers or buyers, except in an authorized drug counseling program; (5) stay 100 yards away from the victims and gang members; (6) seek and maintain training, schooling or employment as approved by the probation officer; (7) maintain residence as approved by the probation officer; (8) not own, use or possess any dangerous or deadly weapons, including any firearms, knives or other concealable weapons; (9) submit to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer or by a probation officer with or without a warrant; (10) use only his true name with the government and police officials; (11) obey all rules and regulations of the probation department; (12) obey all laws and further orders of the court; (13) stay 100 yards away from Asian gang members, specifically Asian Boys, Oriental Thugz and United Bamboo; and (14) register as a gang member.

13. On or about September 14, 2006, the case was called for a readiness/termination/dismissal/nonappearance hearing. Respondent was determined to be in full compliance with the terms and conditions of probation, and his motion for a reduction to a misdemeanor was granted. Additionally, the plea was set aside and vacated, and Count 1 was dismissed pursuant to Penal Code section 1203.4.
