FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Conviction of a Substantially Related Crime)

- 15. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 4955(b) and 490 of the Code in that he was convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist. The circumstances are as follows:
- 16. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under sections 4955(b) and 490 of the Code in that he was convicted of a crime which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of his license. On or about May 12, 2011, in proceedings entitled The People Of The State Of California v. Chang Ho Oh, case number RIM1001646, in the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside, Respondent was convicted upon his plea of guilty to a violation of Business and Professions Code section 119(e), to wit; knowingly permitting the unlawful use of a license issued to him, commonly known as illegal use of a State of California issued Acupuncture license.

On or about May 12, 2011, as a result of his plea, the Superior Court sentenced Respondent to three (3) years probation, 30 days jail, assorted fines and assessments, and various other terms and conditions of probation, including an order that Respondent may not be involved in any business that involves prostitution. The circumstances underlying Respondent's guilty plea and sentence as stated above are as follows:

- 17. On or about November 19, 2010, two investigators from the Riverside County District Attorney's Bureau of Investigation assigned to the Bureau's Special Prosecution Section went to a business known as "J Acupuncture," located at 4640 Galena Street, Suite B1, in Riverside, California, to conduct a compliance check of businesses with regard to various labor and insurance laws. The businesses chosen by the investigators were suspected of operating as houses of prostitution.
- 18. While at "J Acupuncture," both a business license as well as a separate acupuncture license issued in Respondent's name were found displayed on a wall in the business. The investigators removed both licenses and booked them into evidence.
- 19. On or about November 29, 2010, Respondent came to the Riverside District Attorney's Office and spoke with one of the investigators who had been present during the November 19, 2010, enforcement visit to "J Acupuncture." During a conversation with the investigator, Respondent stated he was not the owner of "J Acupuncture," despite being shown his business and acupuncture licenses which had been removed from the business wall by the investigators.

After being shown the above-mentioned business and acupuncture licenses, Respondent stated that two women owned the "J Acupuncture," the business where the licenses were displayed on November 19, 2010.

20. During his conversation with the investigator, Respondent admitted he did in fact own the "Star Health" acupuncture business, located at 638 South Van Ness Avenue, Suite #1, in Los Angeles, California. Then Respondent further admitted he had not notified the State of California Acupuncture Board of the "J Acupuncture" address due to his "laziness."

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Register Places of Practice)

21. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 4961(a) of the Code in that on or about November 29, 2010, in the interview referred to in paragraph 20 above, he admitted
