FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE
(Sexual Misconduct and Unprofessional Conduct Involving Adult Female Patient)

10. On or about May 2, 2012, J.K.\(^1\), a psychologist, filed an on-line complaint with the Acupuncture Board. J.K. stated that her patient, N.S., a minor female, reported that Respondent had touched her inappropriately during an acupuncture treatment session. M.F., N.S.'s mother, also reported that Respondent had touched M.F. inappropriately during an acupuncture treatment session.

11. M.F. began treatment with Respondent on or about March 23, 2012 for, among other things, pain stemming from fibromyalgia, including pain in her neck and arms. She returned to Respondent for acupuncture treatment on or about March 26, 2012 and on or about April 9, 2012. During one of her treatment sessions, she told Respondent that she thought her daughter, N.S., who was experiencing pain similar to her own, would also benefit from acupuncture treatment. Respondent agreed to treat N.S.

Patient N.S.

12. On or about April 2, 2012, N.S. began treatment with Respondent for, among other things, pain stemming from fibromyalgia and endometriosis, including pain in her neck, shoulders, back and hips, and pain related to her menstrual period. Patient M.F.

15. On or about April 9, 2012, M.F., unaware of the details of her daughter's recent treatment, returned to Respondent for acupuncture treatment. Since her clothing was loose fitting, she kept her clothing on during treatment. During the treatment session, Respondent pulled up M.F.'s skirt, spread her thighs apart, and pushed her panties to one side, exposing her vagina. Respondent then rubbed and pinched her outer vagina, and rubbed and pinched her clitoris. M.F. felt uncomfortable but did not say anything. Respondent then placed acupuncture needles and left the room for about forty five minutes before returning and removing the needles.

16. At no time during his treatment of M.F. did Respondent inform her of the reasons for exposing or contacting her vaginal area. Nor did Respondent obtain her consent to do so.

17. Startled by Respondent's conduct during this treatment session, M.F. became concerned about Respondent's treatment of her daughter. She asked N.S. about the details of her treatment sessions with Respondent, and N.S. described to her how Respondent had exposed and touched her vaginal area. Neither M.F nor N.S. ever returned to Respondent for further acupuncture treatment.

18. Respondent's actions as described in paragraphs 10 through 17 constitute sexual misconduct and unprofessional conduct, and establish cause to discipline his license pursuant to Code sections 726 and 4955.

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Gross Negligence)

19. Paragraphs 10 through 18 are incorporated herein.

20. Respondent's actions are an extreme departure from the standard of care and constitute gross negligence in violation of code section 4955.2(a).

(Repeated Negligent Acts: Inadequate Recordkeeping)

21. Paragraphs 10 through 18 are incorporated herein.
22. Respondent’s records for M.F. and N.S. failed to note the results of his examination of each patient. He made no notations regarding each patient’s diagnosis, nor did he chart the progress of each patient as a result of the acupuncture treatment provided.

23. Respondent’s failure to maintain adequate and accurate records for two patients over serial treatment sessions constitutes repeated negligence, in violation of Code sections 4955.2(b) and 4955.1(e) and California Code of Regulations, title 19, section 1399.453(e).
